1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiffs George Loya, Judith Loya, Richard Ramos, Michael Richardson and Shirley 3 Petetan (collectively, “Plaintiffs”) submit this fifth supplemental memorandum in further support 4 of their Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Final Approval Motion”) and 5 Motion for Award of Attorneys’ Fees, Reimbursement of Expenses, and Class Representative
6 Awards (“Fee Motion”). Over five years ago, Class Counsel undertook three separate cases 7 seeking redress for persons or entities who were deceived in connection with obtaining Property
8 Assessed Clean Energy (“PACE”) tax assessment financing through Renovate America, Inc.’s 9 (“Renovate” or “Defendant”) Home Energy Renovation Opportunity (“HERO”) program in 10 several respects related to specific disclosures in their tax assessment contracts. The three original 11 complaints included as defendants Renovate and, respectively, each of the governmental entities 12 involved in the HERO program for each region, namely the Western Riverside Council of 13 Governments (“WRCOG”), the San Bernardino Associated Governments (“SANBAG”), and the 14 County of Los Angeles (“LAC”). Plaintiffs generally alleged that certain of the fees and features 15 of the tax assessment contracts were misrepresented and unfair. These were risky and hard-fought 16 cases, as demonstrated by the fact that they were litigated through dismissal proceedings in both 17 federal and state court. Through the hard work of Class Counsel and the dedication to the case of 18 the Plaintiffs, a $2,255,000.00 Settlement was achieved, and through determination and 19 negotiations by Class Counsel the Settlement was saved from bankruptcy proceedings. Plaintiffs 20 now seek final approval of the Settlement, and Class Counsel seek fees and expenses for their work 21 in achieving that Settlement, as well as Class Representative Awards for the Plaintiffs.

22 After multiple interim proceedings, the Court originally scheduled the Final Approval 23 Hearing for February 11, 2021. But on December 23, 2020, Renovate and its related entities filed 24 a Notice of Stay of Proceedings in this Court due to the filing of a voluntary petition under chapter 25 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code in the District of Delaware (the “Bankruptcy Action”).
26 As a result, in accordance with 11 U.S.C. § 362, all proceedings in this Court were stayed pending 27 further order. Class Counsel did not know if they would be able to save the Settlement given that 28 the committee of unsecured creditors had a justiciable claim that the settlement funds in escrow,

1 in the amount of $1.7 million (the “Escrowed Funds”), were “property of the bankruptcy estate” 2 pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341. Upon retention of bankruptcy counsel, a motion for relief from the 3 automatic stay was filed on behalf of the Class Representatives and a Class Claim was filed in the 4 Bankruptcy Action. The Debtors-in-Possession elected to not challenge the position of the Class
5 regarding ownership rights to the Escrowed Funds but reserved the right to do so pending 6 resolution of the stay relief motion. As with most chapter 11 proceedings as large as Renovate, 7 the Class was required to reach an agreement with the Committee of Unsecured Creditors in 8 addition to reaching an agreement with the Debtors-in-Possession concerning ownership rights to 9 the Escrowed Funds. After more than a year of hearings and negotiations with counsel for both 10 the Debtors and the Committee of Unsecured Creditors, an agreement was reached whereby 11 $250,000 was remitted to the Debtors and the Committee of Unsecured Creditors as a “carve-out” 12 (the “Carveout”). In addition, the Debtors-in-Possession requested that bankruptcy counsel 13 actively support the Debtors concerning certain motions and objections so that a chapter 11 Plan 14 could be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors were able to confirm their chapter 11 15 Plan, which specifically provided for the treatment of the Class Claim as a “Class Claim” under 16 the Bankruptcy Code (F. R. Bankr. P. 7023). While the Class was only preliminarily certified 17 prior to the filing of the chapter 11 petition by Renovate, bankruptcy counsel and counsel for the 18 Debtors and the Committee of Unsecured Creditors all agreed that the “Class Proof of Claim” filed 19 by bankruptcy counsel should be considered as a perfected Class so that further litigation in the 20 bankruptcy court would not be needed. Through close collaboration with bankruptcy counsel, 21 Class Counsel submit that the Settlement, including the requested attorneys’ fees, expenses and 22 Class Representative Awards, is fair, reasonable and adequate and should be approved.

23 The total amount of the Settlement was originally $2,550,000 and, pursuant to the parties’ 24 agreement, Renovate deposited the Escrowed Funds in March 2020, prior to Plaintiffs’ filing of 25 the Motion for Final Approval. As such, Class Counsel currently seek an award of attorneys’ fees 26 in the amount of $561,000.00, which represents 33% of the $1.7 million in Escrowed Funds. As 27 noted above, as part of the negotiations in the Bankruptcy Action, the Class Proof of Claim in the 28 Bankruptcy Action was “allowed” in the amount of $1,100,000 and is now part of the liquidation

1 trust established by the confirmed chapter 11 Plan. Accordingly, Class Counsel and bankruptcy 2 counsel have provided a potential avenue for the Class to receive additional monies out of the 3 Bankruptcy Action, in addition to the balance of the Escrowed Funds remaining after payment of 4 the $250,000 Carveout. While Class Counsel cannot guarantee the collection of Class Claims 5 beyond the net Escrowed Funds, bankruptcy counsel and Class Counsel are hopeful that at least a 6 portion of the Class Claim amount remaining will be paid from the activities of the Bankruptcy 7 Court's Liquidating Trustee in pursuing claims of the bankruptcy estate against other third parties.
8 Should the Court approve the Settlement and fee request, Class Counsel also request permission 9 to distribute any additional monies to the Class obtained in the Bankruptcy Action through the 10 Class Proof of Claim, less the same percentage of attorneys' fees and any additional appropriate 11 and reasonable expenses. Should that occur, Class Counsel will submit a motion for distribution 12 to effectuate same.

13 While there were objections to the Settlement, they were proportionally small compared 14 to the number of Class Members (0.14%); moreover, they lack merit and should be overruled. In 15 fact, this Court has already overruled in its first review of the Settlement and request for attorneys' 16 fees all categories of objections received. Most of the objections were complaints about the HERO 17 program itself, the contractors or the work performed, which are not complaints about the 18 Settlement. Others were complaints that the Settlement was too small, which is not a valid basis 19 for denying approval of a settlement that was negotiated at arm's-length. While there were a few 20 objections about Class Counsel's attorneys' fees, they have already been overruled by the Court.
21 The single objection to the Representative Awards to Plaintiffs should be overruled.

22 In short, in spite of Defendant's bankruptcy and through the diligence of Class Counsel, 23 there are Settlement funds remaining to distribute, and possibly additional funds to distribute at a 24 later date through the Bankruptcy Action. Class Counsel thus ask the Court to approve the 25 Settlement of $2,550,000 as fair, reasonable and adequate, and approve the requested attorneys' 26 fees of $561,000.00 and expenses of $82,914.59¹ as fair and reasonable (as well as the right to a 27

28 ¹ The Amended Notice stated that the expenses would not exceed $80,000; however, the Bankruptcy Action was totally unforeseen at that point and the additional expenses relate to the

1 33% attorneys' fee and expenses for any additional sums obtained through the Class Proof of 2 Claim in the Bankruptcy Action).

3 II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY OF THE SETTLEMENT AND PROCEEDINGS

4 Given the extensive briefing to date, Plaintiffs refer the Court to the prior Memoranda and 5 will recount the procedural history only as necessary for context given the Bankruptcy Action.²
6 Pursuant to the Preliminary Approval Order, Plaintiffs filed their Motion for Final Approval on 7 May 26, 2020 and a supplemental memorandum on June 15, 2020, which addressed the objections
8 the parties had received and the number of requests for exclusion. Thereafter, the parties received 9 five (5) additional requests for exclusion and four (4) additional objections, which Plaintiffs 10 addressed in their second supplemental memorandum dated July 1, 2020. One such objection was 11 by four legal services organizations, the Public Law Center, University of California at Irvine
12 Consumer Law Clinic, East Bay Community Law Center and Legal Aid Society of San Diego 13 (collectively, the "Nonprofits"), which raised objections to, among other things, the sufficiency of 14 the Notice. On July 7, 2020, the Court issued its Tentative Ruling, which tentatively granted the 15 Final Approval Motion and the Fee Motion. The Nonprofits requested oral argument and, on July 16 8, 2020, the Court held the Final Approval Hearing and heard argument from the Nonprofits. One 17 of the arguments centered on the sufficiency of the Notice to the Class in which the Nonprofits 18 presented arguments not previously contained in their Objection. Given the various concerns 19 raised at the Final Approval Hearing regarding the Notice, the Court adjourned the hearing and 20 scheduled a status conference for July 15, 2020. In advance of that status conference, Class 21 Counsel submitted supplemental briefing and recommended that supplemental notice be mailed to 22 the Class. At the status conference on July 15, the Court heard argument about the proposed 23 supplemental notice program and about the clarity of the Release language in the First Amended 24 Settlement Agreement. The Court set a schedule for further briefing on these issues. Class Counsel

25 _____
26 Bankruptcy Action. As such the small overage of $2,914.59 is fair and reasonable and should be approved by the Court.

27 ² See also Joint Declaration of Janine L. Pollack and Rachele R. Byrd in Support of 28 Plaintiffs' Fifth Supplemental Brief in Further Support of Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement and Motion for Award of Attorneys' Fees, Reimbursement of Expenses and Class Representative Awards ("Joint Decl. II"), filed concurrently herewith, §§ II-IV.

1 proposed to implement the supplemental notice program described below and in the Fourth 2 Supplemental Declaration of Cameron R. Azari, Esq. on Implementation and Adequacy of 3 Settlement Notices and Notice Plan, filed July 29, 200 (the “Fourth Azari Decl.”), and the parties 4 agreed to amend the Release language to more clearly identify the claims being released by the 5 Settlement. Class Counsel thus addressed all the issues raised by the Nonprofits regarding the 6 notice program and the release and the Court approved the proposed supplemental notice program.

7 III. THE SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE PROGRAM AND ITS COSTS

8 The supplemental notice to the Class (the “Supplemental Notice Program”) entailed:

- 9 1) The Long Form Notice was amended (the “Amended Notice”) to include, among 10 other things identified below, amended Release language (see section IV, infra), 11 and was sent by U.S. Mail to every Class Member in both English and Spanish, 12 including the Exclusion and Objection Forms. See Exhibit A to the Declaration of 13 Cameron R. Azari, Esq. on Implementation and Adequacy of Supplemental 14 Settlement Notice Plan dated Jan. 20, 2022 (“Fifth Azari Decl.”), filed herewith;
- 15 2) The Amended Notice identified a new deadline for opting out of or objecting to the 16 Settlement and provided instructions on how Class Members could withdraw a 17 previously submitted objection or exclusion;
- 18 3) The entire Settlement Website and Interactive Voice Response (IVR) system 19 available at the toll-free telephone number was translated and available in Spanish;
- 20 4) Class Members were permitted to submit objections and exclusions by email, and 21 the Amended Notice so advised and specified an email address to do so;
- 22 5) The Amended Notice advised Class Members that when they called the Settlement 23 toll-free telephone number they could request a Spanish-speaking representative or 24 assistance in any other language as needed; and
- 25 6) The Amended Notice specified the continued Final Approval Hearing date/time.

26 See Second Amended Settlement Agreement (“SASA”) reflecting these changes.

27 This Supplemental Notice Program and second chance to object/opt-out addressed all 28 objectors’ concerns regarding the notice program, namely, that some Notices sent by email were not delivered, that Spanish-speaking Class Members did not have access to the Notice in their language, and that the elderly and others either do not have internet access or do not use or review email. Due process requires that reasonable notice of the settlement be given to all potential class members. See Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 177 (1974). Reasonable notice is understood to be the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances. Plaintiffs submit that

1 the Supplemental Notice Program and amended Release met all constitutional requirements.

2 Epiq agreed to waive approximately $6,000 in administration costs associated with printing 3 and mailing the Amended Notices and to coordinate the translation. See Fourth Azari Decl., ¶ 11.
4 The cost to the Class of printing and mailing the long form Amended Notice was approximately 5 $51,000. Id. Epiq estimated that the translation costs would be approximately $2,100, which 6 included translating the following Settlement materials into Spanish: long form Amended Notice, 7 amended Exclusion Request Form, amended Objection Form, Settlement Website and toll-free
8 telephone number IVR. Id. Epiq estimated that the cost for undeliverable and re-mail activities 9 associated with the Amended Notice as described in paragraph 7 of the Fourth Azari Decl. would 10 approximately $4,400. Id. Epiq further estimated that the cost for the development, testing and 11 deployment of the existing Settlement Website and toll-free telephone number IVR in Spanish, 12 described in paragraph 8 of the Fourth Azari Decl., would be approximately $3,500. Id. In total, 13 the costs to the Class associated with the foregoing Supplemental Notice Program and Spanish-14 translation activities was estimated to be approximately $61,000. Id. In light of the foregoing, the 15 total cost of administration is currently estimated to be approximately $196,000 ($135,000 original 16 cap plus $61,000 in new costs associated with the Supplemental Notice Program) (id.), which was 17 stated in the Amended Notice. Epiq has deducted its costs on an ongoing basis from the Escrowed 18 Funds and has, to date, deducted $173,053.94 with $22,946.06 remaining to be deducted. Fifth 19 Azari Decl., ¶ 20.

20 It is appropriate for the Class to bear such costs from the Settlement Fund. These are costs 21 that would have been properly incurred by the Class had these notice activities been implemented 22 at the outset of the notice program. There are no additional administration costs associated with 23 the Supplemental Notice Program because Epiq waived those, as described above. Class Counsel 24 took the new costs into account in computing the likely refunds to Class Members, and such 25 amounts are reflected in the Amended Notice.

26 IV. THE AMENDED RELEASE

27 Class Counsel and Defendant's counsel amended the Release language for clarity 28 following the various proceedings discussed above. See Joint Decl. II at ¶ 32; SASA, ¶¶ 5.01,

1 5.02. Class Counsel believe that this amended Release addressed the Court’s concerns yet honored
2 the agreement the parties entered into when they settled the Actions as well as this Court’s standard 3 language regarding releases that has been used in thousands of class action settlements over the 4 course of many years. As such, the amended Release should be approved by the Court.

5 V. THE RENOVATE BANKRUPTCY

6 As noted above, on December 23, 2020, following dissemination of the mailed notice in 7 the Supplemental Notice Program but prior to the deadline for opt-outs and objections, all 8 proceedings in this Court came to a halt due to Renovate’s Bankruptcy Action. Certain parties in 9 the Bankruptcy Action took the position that the Escrowed Funds were part of the bankruptcy
10 estate and could not be used for the Settlement in this case, and Class Counsel were forced to hire 11 bankruptcy counsel and local Delaware counsel (“Bankruptcy Counsel”) to protect the Class and 12 the Escrowed Funds. For nearly a year, Bankruptcy Counsel fought to save the Escrowed Funds, 13 and the only way to do so and proceed with the Settlement was to negotiate a compromise, which 14 would allow the majority of the funds in escrow to be paid to the Class. That compromise was the 15 Carveout of $250,000 from the Escrowed Funds to be paid to Renovate or the Liquidating Trustee, 16 which was approved by the Bankruptcy Court and this Court. See Stipulation and Order Approving 17 Bankruptcy Payment to Defendant and Resetting Final Approval Hearing, entered Nov. 29, 2021.
18 However, because, as part of the negotiations in the Bankruptcy Action, Class Counsel, through 19 Bankruptcy Counsel, was able to negotiate that the Class Proof of Claim in the Bankruptcy Action 20 will be deemed allowed in the amount of $1,100,000, Class Counsel has provided a potential 21 avenue for the Class to receive additional monies out of the Bankruptcy Action, should there be 22 any monies available. If the Court approves the instant Settlement, Class Counsel seeks attorneys’ 23 fees and expenses for any additional funds obtained through the Class Proof of Claim in the 24 Bankruptcy Action and will submit a motion for distribution regarding same. For this reason, 25 Class Counsel seeks final approval of the entire amount of the Settlement of $2,550,000.

26 VI. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE AND ADEQUATE AND SHOULD 27 BE APPROVED BY THE COURT

28 Plaintiffs seek final approval for the Settlement in the amount of $2,550,000, with the remaining Escrowed Funds after deduction of all approved fees, expenses and awards to be

1 distributed upon final approval (after any appeals) and any other recovered funds to be distributed 2 at a later date.³ Plaintiffs’ previously-filed Final Approval Motion demonstrates why the 3 Settlement amount of $2,550,000 was fair, reasonable and adequate. Now that Renovate has filed 4 for bankruptcy, further recovery against Renovate is highly challenging at best. Under the SASA, 5 all Class Members will receive a partial refund of certain monies paid in connection with their 6 tax assessment contracts. See Joint Decl. II, Ex. A (SASA), ¶ 4.03. Plaintiffs respectfully submit 7 that under the current circumstances, the terms of the Settlement are fair, reasonable and adequate 8 and that the requirements for final approval are satisfied.⁴

9 A class action settlement should be approved where the court finds it is fair, adequate, and 10 reasonable to the class members. See Kullar v. Foot Locker Retail, Inc., 168 Cal. App. 4th 116, 11 127, 133 (2008). Moreover, a class action settlement is presumed to be fair if: (1) it is “reached 12 through arm’s-length bargaining; (2) investigation and discovery are sufficient to allow counsel 13 and the court to act intelligently; (3) counsel is experienced in similar litigation; and (4) the 14 percentage of objectors is small.” Chavez v. Netflix, 162 Cal. App. 4th 43, 52 (2008) (quoting 15 Dunk v. Ford Motor Co., 48 Cal. App. 4th 1794, 1802 (1996)).

16 As shown below, the Settlement meets these standards and the Court should grant it final 17 approval. First, to assess the fairness, adequacy, and reasonableness of a class action settlement, 18 the Court should consider “the strength of plaintiffs’ case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely 19

20 ³ Regarding the injunctive relief, SANBAG’s HERO Loan program ceased to exist as of 21 June 30, 2017, and LAC’s HERO Loan program ceased to exist in or around May 2020 (see 22 https://www.latimes.com/homeless-housing/story/2020-05-21/la-fi-pace-home-improvement-loans-la-county).

23 ⁴ The Amended Notice stated that the average Class Member is expected to receive 24 approximately $18.80 but that the amount could vary from a range of approximately $4.07 to 25 approximately $226.88, depending on a variety of factors, including the size of the Class member’s
26 financing contract. Given that at this time it is unknown whether there will be any further recovery 27 from the Bankruptcy Action, Class Counsel cannot predict with precision the average amount a 28 Class Member is likely to receive. Analyzed from the current funds available for distribution, the average Class Member is expected to receive approximately $7.74, but that the amount could vary from a range of approximately $1.67 to approximately $93.35, depending on a variety of factors, including the size of the Class Member’s financing contract. Moreover, Class Counsel filed a Class Claim, which is an unsecured claim, in the Bankruptcy Action and the Class is entitled to recover the amount of its claim from the Liquidating Trust should sufficient funds become available.

1 duration of further litigation, [and] the risk of maintaining class action status. . . .” See Dunk, 48 2 Cal. App. 4th at 1801. Moreover, as previously demonstrated, the Settlement was reached after 3 an exchange of informal discovery and several months of arm’s-length, non-collusive bargaining 4 between counsel, including an all-day mediation on November 20, 2018, with the Honorable 5 Jeffrey King (Ret.) at JAMS. While the parties were unable to reach agreement at the mediation, 6 they continued to negotiate for several months, which culminated in an agreement.⁵ In addition, 7 as previously demonstrated, Class Counsel is highly experienced in class actions. Finally, as 8 addressed more fully below, the number of objectors relative to the number of Class Members is 9 small (just 0.14%). Moreover, most of those objections were interposed before the bankruptcy, 10 are without merit, and have already been overruled by the Court. See Section IX, infra.

11 VII. THE SETTLEMENT CLASS SHOULD BE CERTIFIED

12 This Court’s Preliminary Approval Order conditionally certified the Settlement Class and 13 appointed Plaintiffs as class representatives and their counsel as Class Counsel. The Court should 14 now finally certify the Settlement Class for purposes of this Settlement and appoint Plaintiffs as 15 Class Representatives and their undersigned counsel as Class Counsel.

16 There are two requirements to certify a class: (1) the class must be ascertainable; and (2) 17 there must be a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law and fact involved 18 affecting the parties to be represented. See Daar v. Yellow Cab Co., 67 Cal. 2d 695, 704 (1967).
19 California courts apply a “lesser standard of scrutiny” to certification of settlement classes. Global 20 Minerals & Metals Corp. v. Superior Court, 113 Cal. App. 4th 836, 859 (2003). Each of the 21 criteria for class certification is clearly satisfied in this case.

22 A. An Ascertainable Settlement Class Exists and Is Numerous

23 The Class is defined by objective characteristics and common transactional facts, i.e., (i)
24 all persons or entities who received residential PACE tax assessment financing from WRCOG
25 through the HERO program where the underlying assessment contract was executed by the person 26

27 ⁵ See Joint Declaration of Janine L. Pollack and Rachele R. Byrd in Support of: (1) Plaintiffs’ 28 Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement; and (2) Plaintiffs’ Motion for Award of Attorneys’ Fees, Reimbursement of Expenses, and Class Representative Awards, filed May 26, 2020 (“Joint Decl. I”), Ex. D (Newman Decl.) at ¶ 2.

1 or entity between January 1, 2012 and July 7, 2016; and (2) all persons or entities who received
2 residential PACE tax assessment financing from LAC or SANBAG through the HERO program
3 where the underlying assessment contract was executed by the person or entity between January 4 1, 2012 and June 15, 2017. See Joint Decl. II, Ex. A (SASA), ¶ 1.27. Therefore, Class Members
5 are readily ascertainable. Moreover, it is undisputed that there were approximately 74,000 HERO 6 assessments during the relevant period and therefore the Settlement Class is also sufficiently 7 numerous. See Joint Decl. I, Ex. D (Newman Decl.), ¶ 3.

8 B. There is a Community of Interest

9 “The community of interest requirement involves three factors: ‘(1) predominant 10 common questions of law or fact; (2) class representatives with claims or defenses typical of the 11 class; and (3) class representatives who can adequately represent the class.’” Linder v. Thrifty Oil 12 Co., 23 Cal. 4th 429, 435 (2000).

13 The first factor means that it would be more efficient to jointly try the issues in the action, 14 rather than requiring “each member . . . to individually litigate numerous and substantial questions 15 to determine his or her right to recover following the class judgment” Washington Mutual 16 Bank v. Superior Court, 24 Cal. 4th 906, 913 (2001). The central questions behind the claims in 17 this litigation are: (1) whether Defendant violated Business & Professions Code, § 17200, et seq.
18 by engaging in unlawful, unfair and/or deceptive activities with respect to the HERO loans; (2)
19 whether Plaintiffs and the Class would be entitled to relief by reason of Defendant’s wrongful 20 conduct; (3) what is the proper measure of damages; and (4) whether Plaintiffs and the Class would 21 be entitled to injunctive relief by reason of Renovate’s wrongful conduct. The answers to these 22 questions depend on common evidence that does not vary by Class Member, and so can be fairly 23 resolved—whether through litigation or settlement—for all Class Members at once.

24 The second factor, typicality, requires only that the named plaintiff’s interests in the action 25 be similar to those of other class members. See Richmond v. Dart Industries, Inc., 29 Cal. 3d 462, 26 470, 478 (1981). Here, typicality is satisfied because the claims of the Settlement Class arise from 27 the same misconduct that Plaintiffs seek to remedy – common misrepresentations and omissions 28 contained in standardized documents across the entire Class.

1 With respect to the third factor, the representative plaintiff must adequately protect the 2 interests of the class: (1) there must be no disabling conflict of interest between the class 3 representative and the class; and (2) the class representative must be represented by counsel who 4 are competent and experienced in the kind of litigation to be undertaken. See McGhee v. Bank of 5 Am., 60 Cal. App. 3d 442, 450 (1976). Plaintiffs have no conflicts with the Settlement Class, and 6 during the more than five years that this action has been pending, Plaintiffs have participated 7 actively in the case. See Plaintiffs’ Decls., filed May 26, 2020, ¶¶ 3-10.

8 Moreover, Class Counsel have diligently litigated this case and have successfully 9 prosecuted numerous class actions across the country in both state and federal courts in recent 10 years, recovering billions of dollars for injured class members. See Richmond, 29 Cal. 3d at 479
11 (counsel adequate where they had “substantial experience in class action litigation”); Class 12 Counsel Decs., filed May 26, 2020, Ex. B.

13 VIII. THE ATTORNEYS’ FEES, EXPENSES AND REPRESENTATIVE AWARDS
14 ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE AND SHOULD BE APPROVED

15 The Attorneys’ Fees: In their Fee Motion filed in May 2020, Class Counsel sought an 16 award of $841,500.00 in attorneys’ fees. Given the Bankruptcy Action and the consequent 17 reduction in funds available for distribution to the Class, Class Counsel now seek an award of only 18 $561,000.00, which represents 33% of the $1.7 million in Escrowed Funds. Should the Court 19 approve the Settlement and fee request, Class Counsel seek permission to distribute any additional 20 monies to the Class obtained through the Bankruptcy Action, less the same percentage of 21 attorneys’ fees and any additional expenses Class Counsel incur and will file a motion for 22 distribution regarding same. As noted in their Fee Motion, the common fund doctrine is generally 23 held applicable “where plaintiffs’ efforts have effected the creation or preservation of an 24 identifiable fund of money out of which the fees will be paid.” Jordan v. Dep’t of Motor Vehicles, 25 100 Cal. App. 4th 431, 446-47 (2002) (citing Serrano v. Priest, 20 Cal. 3d 25, 37-38 (1997)). Here, 26 the Settlement resulted in creation of an identifiable fund of $2,550,000, $1.7 million of which 27 constitutes the Escrowed Funds, from which refunds, notice and administration costs, attorneys’ 28 fees and expenses, the Carveout, and any Representative Awards have been or will be paid.

Courts have noted that fees awarded in class actions average around 33% of the recovery.

1 See, e.g., Consumer Privacy Cases, 175 Cal. App. 4th 545, 557, n.13 (2009) (“Empirical studies 2 show that, regardless whether the percentage method or the lodestar method is used, fee awards in 3 class actions average around one-third of the recovery.”). In Laffitte, for example, the Supreme 4 Court of California affirmed a fee award representing 33.33% of a $19 million common fund, plus 5 expenses. Laffitte, 1 Cal. 5th 480; Laffitte v. Robert Half Int’l Inc., 231 Cal. App. 4th 860, 869-71 6 (2014). Courts thus routinely award a one-third fee in contingency cases such as this.⁶ As such, 7 here the 33% fee sought falls squarely within the average commonly approved. The requested 8 fees of 33% are based upon the Escrowed Funds unless and until any additional funds are secured 9 from the Bankruptcy Action, at which time the same percentage for fees would be applied. Under 10 prevailing case law, this request is fair and reasonable.

11 The requested fees are also appropriate under the lodestar method. Previously, in their 12 original Fee Motion, Class Counsel reported that they had spent 2,862.40 hours with a collective 13 lodestar of $1,890,867.75 for work performed over the course of nearly four years, which equated 14 to a “negative multiplier” of 0.45. See Joint Decl. I, ¶¶ 35-36. Since that time and through the 15 bankruptcy, Class Counsel have incurred an additional 575.70 hours and lodestar of $463,510.00 16 for a total of 3,438.10 hours and lodestar of $2,354,377.75—a negative multiplier of 0.24. See 17 Joint Decl. II, ¶ 53. Moreover, the contingency bankruptcy counsel spent 68 hours with a lodestar 18 of $33,250.00, which will be paid from the attorneys’ fees awarded to Class Counsel.⁷ Id. As 19 such, the “negative multiplier” is even more “negative” at this point, almost two years later. Courts 20 routinely hold that a negative multiplier strongly supports the reasonableness of the requested fee.
21 See, e.g., Oxina v. Lands’ End, Inc., No. 14cv2577-MMA (NLS), 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 191738, 22 at *13 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 2, 2016) (“Class Counsel’s request for fees is reasonable, given that the 23 requested fees are a negative multiplier of Class Counsel’s lodestar to date.”); In re Amgen Sec.
24 Litig., No. CV 7-2536 PSG (PLAx), 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 148577, at *27 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 25, 25 2016) (“Moreover, courts have recognized that a percentage fee that falls below counsel’s lodestar 26 strongly supports the reasonableness of the award”) (citation omitted).

27
28 ⁶ See Fee Motion at n.4 and Joint Decl. I, Ex. E for a non-exhaustive list of other cases awarding a percentage of the common fund of one-third or more.

⁷ Class Counsel negotiated a reduced hourly rate. See Joint Decl. II, ¶ 53.

1 Class Counsel are highly-regarded members of the bar and have extensive experience in 2 class actions and complex litigation. Their rates are squarely in line with prevailing rates in this 3 jurisdiction and Southern California and are paid by hourly paying clients of their firms and/or 4 have been approved by numerous other courts. See Class Counsel Decls., filed May 26, 2020.
5 Class Counsel’s rates of $700 to $1,025 for partners and $465 to $595 for associates and Of 6 Counsel are within the prevailing market rates in the Southern California area for attorneys of 7 comparable skill, experience, and reputation.⁸ See, e.g., Granados v. County of L.A., No.
8 BC361470, 2018 Cal. Super. LEXIS 7789, at *81 (Nov. 14, 2018) (“Class Counsel’s hourly rates 9 [of $625 to $965 for partners and $445 to $530 for associates] are reasonable for their skill and the 10 work they performed.”); Bergstein v. Stroock & Stroock & Lavan, No. BC483164, 2013 Cal.
11 Super. LEXIS 593, at *12 (L.A. Cnty. Super. Ct. Feb. 14, 2013) (approving rates up to $920 per 12 hour and noting that “in the Los Angeles legal community, attorney billing rates of $1000 per hour 13 and above are no longer unheard of”); Rodriguez v. Cnty. of Los Angeles, 96 F. Supp. 3d 1012, 14 1022-23 (C.D. Cal. 2014) (approving attorney rates from $500 to $975 in a case against County of 15 Los Angeles). Likewise, Class Counsel’s rates for paralegals, which range from $210 to $340, are 16 reasonable. See Perfect 10, Inc. v. Giganews, Inc., No. CV 11-07098-AB (SHx), 2015 U.S. Dist.
17 LEXIS 54063, at *65 (C.D. Cal. Mar. 24, 2015) (approving paralegal rates of $240 to $345).

18 Given the time and effort that Class Counsel has expended over the course of more than 19 five years to obtain a Settlement and to protect that Settlement in the Bankruptcy Action, which 20 threatened to destroy it entirely, Class Counsel respectfully submit that the request for attorneys’ 21 fees (which equates to a negative multiplier) should be granted.

22 The Expenses: Class Counsel also seek a total of $82,914.59 in unreimbursed expenses, 23 which include, inter alia, legal research, necessary travel and other reasonable expenses. Class 24 Counsel previously reported on May 26, 2020 that their total expenses were $58,423.6. Since that 25 time, Class Counsel and contingency bankruptcy counsel have incurred an additional $24,490.93

26 ⁸ The use of current rates is proper since such rates compensate for inflation and loss of use 27 of funds. Mo. v. Jenkins, 491 U.S. 274, 283-84 (1989). That is particularly apt here, where the 28 case has lasted more than five years. See also Mackinnon v. Imvu, Inc., No. 111-cv-193767, 2016
Cal. Super. LEXIS 175, at *2-3 & n.1 (Santa Clara Cnty. Super. Ct. Feb. 22, 2016) (citing LeBlanc-Sternberg v. Fletcher, 143 F.3d 748, 764 (2d Cir. 1998)).

1 in expenses, consisting of Delaware bankruptcy counsel’s retainer in the amount of $5,000 along 2 with invoices due and owing of $15,370.50 (all non-contingent), legal research, attorney services, 3 postage, document reproduction, court fees, telephone and secretarial overtime. As noted supra, 4 while the additional expenses bring the total for the case to slightly more than the $80,000 stated
5 in the Amended Notice, the expenses related to bankruptcy counsel were unexpected at that time.
6 However, these expenses were necessary and reasonable. Class Counsel also anticipate incurring 7 additional expenses through the end of the claims process. There were no objections to the 8 expenses of $58,423.66 delineated in the initial application and Class Counsel submit that the 9 newly incurred expenses of $24,490.93 were necessary and reasonable to the prosecution of the 10 case and should be approved, bringing the total to $82,914.59.

11 The Class Representative Awards: Class Counsel request a $5,000 Class Representative 12 Award for each of three Class Representatives (Plaintiffs Richardson, Ramos, and Petetan) and a 13 single $5,000 award for the Loyas, an amount which is less than the amounts often awarded. See, 14 e.g., Cellphone Termination Fee Cases, 186 Cal. App. 4th 1380, 1393-95 (2010) (affirming 15 $10,000 awards); Blacksher, 2008 Cal. Super. LEXIS 1464, at *10-11 ($10,000 award). The 16 efforts of the Class Representatives in assisting Class Counsel to achieve this excellent Settlement
17 are described in the declarations submitted by each Class Representative. See Plaintiff Decls., 18 filed May 26, 2020.

19 IX. THE OBJECTIONS SHOULD BE OVERRULED

20 By Order dated September 29, 2020, as a result of the analysis the Court performed when 21 previously evaluating the Settlement, the Court held that “[a]ll objections other than those 22 expressly adopted by the Court related to the Supplemental Notice Program, the Amended Notice 23 or the release are hereby OVERRULED.” See Order Approving Supplemental Notice Plan, 24 Continuing Final Approval Hearing, dated October 1, 2020.⁹ The objections overruled by the 25 Court fell into the following categories: complaints about the HERO program in general or about 26 specific aspects of the program; complaints about the potential amount of payments due Settlement 27 Class Members or the amount of attorneys’ fees sought; and objections that were procedurally

28 ⁹ To the extent there were objections to the notice or release, those were addressed. See supra.

1 improper, or did not appear to be objections at all (the “Overruled Objections”). With one 2 exception relating to the Representative Awards, the objections received after implementation of 3 the Supplemental Notice Program all fall into those same categories and, as such, should similarly 4 be overruled as they do not provide a basis to deny Plaintiffs’ Final Approval Motion or Fee 5 Motion. The current objections received from the Supplemental Notice Program should thus 6 similarly be overruled.

7 Specifically, there were 95 objections received after the initiation of the Supplemental 8 Notice Program. Some objections contained more than one assertion and thus fall into more than 9 one category. There were 48 complaints about the HERO program in general, or about specific 10 aspects of the program; 28 complaints about the potential amount of payments due Settlement 11 Class Members; nine complaints about the amount of attorneys’ fees sought; and 20 that were 12 procedurally improper (e.g., blank) or did not appear to be objections at all (this category 13 technically reduces the total number of objections down to 75). As noted above, these categories 14 of objections were all rejected by the Court in the Overruled Objections and should be rejected 15 again. As to the objection regarding the Representative Awards, as discussed above, such awards 16 are well within the range of such awards typically granted in cases such as this, and the awards are 17 warranted for the efforts of the Class Representatives in assisting Class Counsel to achieve this 18 Settlement. As such this objection should be overruled.

19 In total, there were 107 objections through both notices, which amounted to a minuscule 20 percentage (0.14%) of the Class. None presents a valid reason for denying final approval of the 21 Settlement. See Dandan Pan v. Qualcomm Inc., No. 16-cv-01885-JLS-DHB, 2017 U.S. Dist.
22 LEXIS 120150, at *30 (S.D. Cal. July 31, 2017) (small number of objections to a proposed class 23 action settlement “raises a strong presumption [of fairness].”) (internal quotations omitted).

24 X. CONCLUSION

25 Class Counsel respectfully submit that the Court should approve the Settlement and the 26 award of $561,000.00 in attorneys’ fees, reimbursement of $82,914.59 in expenses, and Class 27 Representative Awards of $20,000, to be paid from the Settlement Fund.
